

Police Women Helpline.

Police Women Helpline was set up in the month of July 2000. It all happened in an incident of a suicidal case of a minor daughter, of the prestigious person of our society for a petty reason. The matter was sensitively observed and contemplated by the police commissioner of Mysore city Sri Chandrashekar IPS. He assumed that probably if that girl had obtained a suitable counseling on time she would have been alive today between us to see this beautiful world. Due to this Post tragic incident of the girl, the father of the girl then decided and by the guidance of several scientists, doctors, retired employees and many other social servants colluded with Mysuru city police in the year 2000 and established pioneering Police Helpline (Mahila Saantwana kendra), a counseling center to those who are really in need of this. To this Helpline respected police commissioner of Mysuru city is the Ex-officio chairman. Presently this esteem nonprofit making organization is functioning at its Lashkar police station building located near Nehru circle, Irwin road, Mysuru. Besides this organization is leveraging to meet the challenges of tomorrow by rendering it's 24*7 service, including three police personnel's who render their duty from morning 9 am till night 9 pm adopting 3 shifts intact. Further this organization is decorated by possessing a compendium of doyens working as counselors and they are stretching their non profiteering hands to common public who visit this Helpline to end their respective ordeals and schism. Since it's inception till today nearly 38,235 cases have undergone counseling by the counselors. Lastly this esteem organization even today with pride is functioning under the captaincy and direction of Mysuru city police commissioner. Contact number of Mysuru police helpline 0821-2418400.

